

Displays

The Library welcomes displays of arts, crafts, and other items of general interest to the community.

The Library will provide space for district residents and organizations for such displays when possible.

Such displays are to be arranged through the Director or the Director's designee.

The following criteria are to be used in deciding whether items are appropriate for public display in the Library:

- 1) sufficient artistic and/or general interest;
- 2) politically non partisan;
- 3) not proselytizing;
- 4) would not bother or offend the normal child (especially since parents cannot stop their children from seeing displays without keeping children from using the Library);
- 5) is in appropriate format for display;

- 6) the exhibitor will release the Library from any liability for items on display which are lost, stolen, or damaged in any way, even through negligence.

In regard to the fourth criterion, the Trustees emphasize that they do not countenance censorship of written words contained in books. However, they do believe that the items on display should not be offensive to Library visitors of any age.

The Director will be the final arbiter regarding what may be displayed in The Community Library, where and how it will be displayed, and for what length of time. There can be no appeal in regard to this matter.
