Storytime isn't just for kids! Our new monthly 'Storytime for Adults' begins with a classic cautionary tale. Join Librarian Debbi Gallucci for a short story reading of The Monkey's Paw, a supernatural short story by author W. W. Jacobs. In the story, three wishes are granted to the owner of The Monkey's Paw, but the wishes come with an enormous price for interfering with fate.

Book Discussion of

An Abundance of Katherines

Thursday, November 18

2:00 – 4:00 p.m. In Person

Registration begins Thursday, October 28.

Join us for a book discussion of An Abundance of Katherines by John Green. When it comes to relationships, Colin Singleton's type is girls named Katherine. And when it comes to girls named Katherine, Colin is always getting dumped. Nineteen times, to be exact. On a road trip miles from home, this anagram-happy, washed-up child prodigy has ten thousand dollars in his pocket, a bloodthirsty feral hog on his trail, and an overweight, Judge Judy-loving best friend riding shotgun — but no Katherines. Colin is on a mission to prove The Theorem of Underlying Katherine Predictability, which he hopes will predict the future of any relationship, avenge Dumpees everywhere, and finally win him the girl. Copies of the book are available at the Circulation Desk beginning Thursday, October 28.

The Nickel Boys

Tuesday, November 23

7:00 – 8:30 p.m. via Zoom

Join us for a Zoom book discussion of

The Nickel Boys by Colson Whitehead, a story of Elwood Curtis, a black boy growing up in 1960s Tallahassee, who is unfairly sentenced to a juvenile reformatory where he finds himself trapped in a chamber of horrors. His only salvation is his friendship with fellow delinquent Turner who believes that Elwood is hopelessly naive, that the world is crooked and that the only way to survive is to scheme and avoid trouble. Life becomes perilous for the boys and tensions lead to decisions whose repercussions echo down through the decades. This Pulitzer-prize winning story is based on the real story of a reform school that operated for 111 years and warped the lives of thousands of children.

Copies of the book are available at the front desk. Digital copies are available in Libby and Overdrive. Open to all.

All programs are available to Mastics-Moriches-Shirley Community Library cardholders and require advanced registration, unless otherwise indicated. Please have your library card available when you register. The Library is glad to provide reasonable accommodations for patrons with special needs. Please call us at least two weeks prior to the program to make arrangements. Photographs, footage and names of patrons attending library programs may be used for publicity. Please inform us if you do not want information about you and your family used for such publicity.
