

RETIREMENT SYSTEM

To the extent that it is allowed by law, the Library shall participate in the New York State Employees' Retirement System (ERS), a retirement plan offered through the New York State and Local Retirement System.

Consistent with ERS decree, participation in the system is mandatory for the Library's full-time employees. Participation for part-time employees is voluntary.

Employees' Retirement System contribution rates and benefits are determined by the ERS and not the Library.

Latest Revision: September 27, 2005
Originally Adopted: May 18, 1987