

UNEMPLOYMENT REIMBURSEMENT

Pursuant to New York State Unemployment Insurance Law, the Library, as a government entity, has elected to reimburse the Unemployment Insurance Fund for all benefits paid to former employees and charged to the Library's account in lieu of tax contributions (i.e. the Library has elected the "Benefit Reimbursement" option).

The Library shall designate a separate fund through which unemployment reimbursement payments shall be paid.

Latest Revision: May 22, 2006
Originally Adopted: March 29, 1999