Betting On You

By Painter, Lynn

When Bailey first meets Charlie during a long, miserable move to Omaha, he's rude, cynical, and the total opposite of her sunny personality. Years later, she's shocked to find him as her new coworker. Surprisingly, they get along—sort of. After witnessing a workplace flirtation, they make a bet: Charlie believes men and women can't just be friends; Bailey disagrees. Their playful banter soon turns into fake dating to deal with Bailey's mom's overly sweet new relationship, but real feelings start to grow. As Bailey begins to fall for Charlie, she doesn't know he's hiding a secret—another bet, one that involves her. Can they overcome it, or will it ruin everything before it begins?
